

Telling the Inner Forth Story

Sue Walker

IFLI Communications Officer

Photo: RCAHMS

An Inner Forth where local people and visitors alike value, protect and celebrate this unique landscape at the heart of Scotland.

AROUND
1,000
VOLUNTEERS

VOLUNTEERED
3,680
DAYS OF WORK

EQUIVALENT TO
£184,044
IN-KIND TIME

Including establishing new meadows at Grange pans, near Bo'ness

WE CREATED
159
HECTARES
OF NEW HABITAT

9 hectares of
wildflower meadows

Managed 13 hectares

Removed scrub from 2 hectares

38 hectares of
grassland

12.5 hectares of wetlands
& reedbeds

10 hectares of intertidal

74.5
hectares of woodland

Including a new wetland at RSPB Black Devon Wetlands

54 PROJECTS WERE DELIVERED
THROUGHOUT THE INNER FORTH

438

People received heritage training, including in conservation masonry with Historic Environment Scotland

15.7km

including nearly 1km along the River Forth at Cambus

514

events were held, engaging nearly 4000 people, including this community archaeology event at Zetland Park

74ha

of woodlands were created or improved, including these at Polmont Woods, in Falkirk

153

school sessions were held, and we engaged with over 700 children.

4

community orchards were planted, including at Valleyfield Woodland Park, where over 250 children from seven Fife schools helped plant the trees.

4

historic buildings have been restored, including the Limekilns in Charlestown

Beacons

- 1 Bo'ness Foreshore
- 2 Kinneil Estate
- 3 Fallin Bing
- 4 Abbey Craig
- 5 Alloa Harbour
- 6 Clackmannan Tower
- 7 Limekilns

Markers

- 1 Charlestown Harbour
- 2 Torry Bay
- 3 High Valleyfield
- 4 Kennetpans
- 5 Clackmannan
- 6 Black Devon Mill
- 7 Cambuslang
- 8 Cambuslang
- 9

Great views of the Inner Forth

from historic
Clackmannan Tower

EXPLORE

DISCOVER
THE INNER FORTH

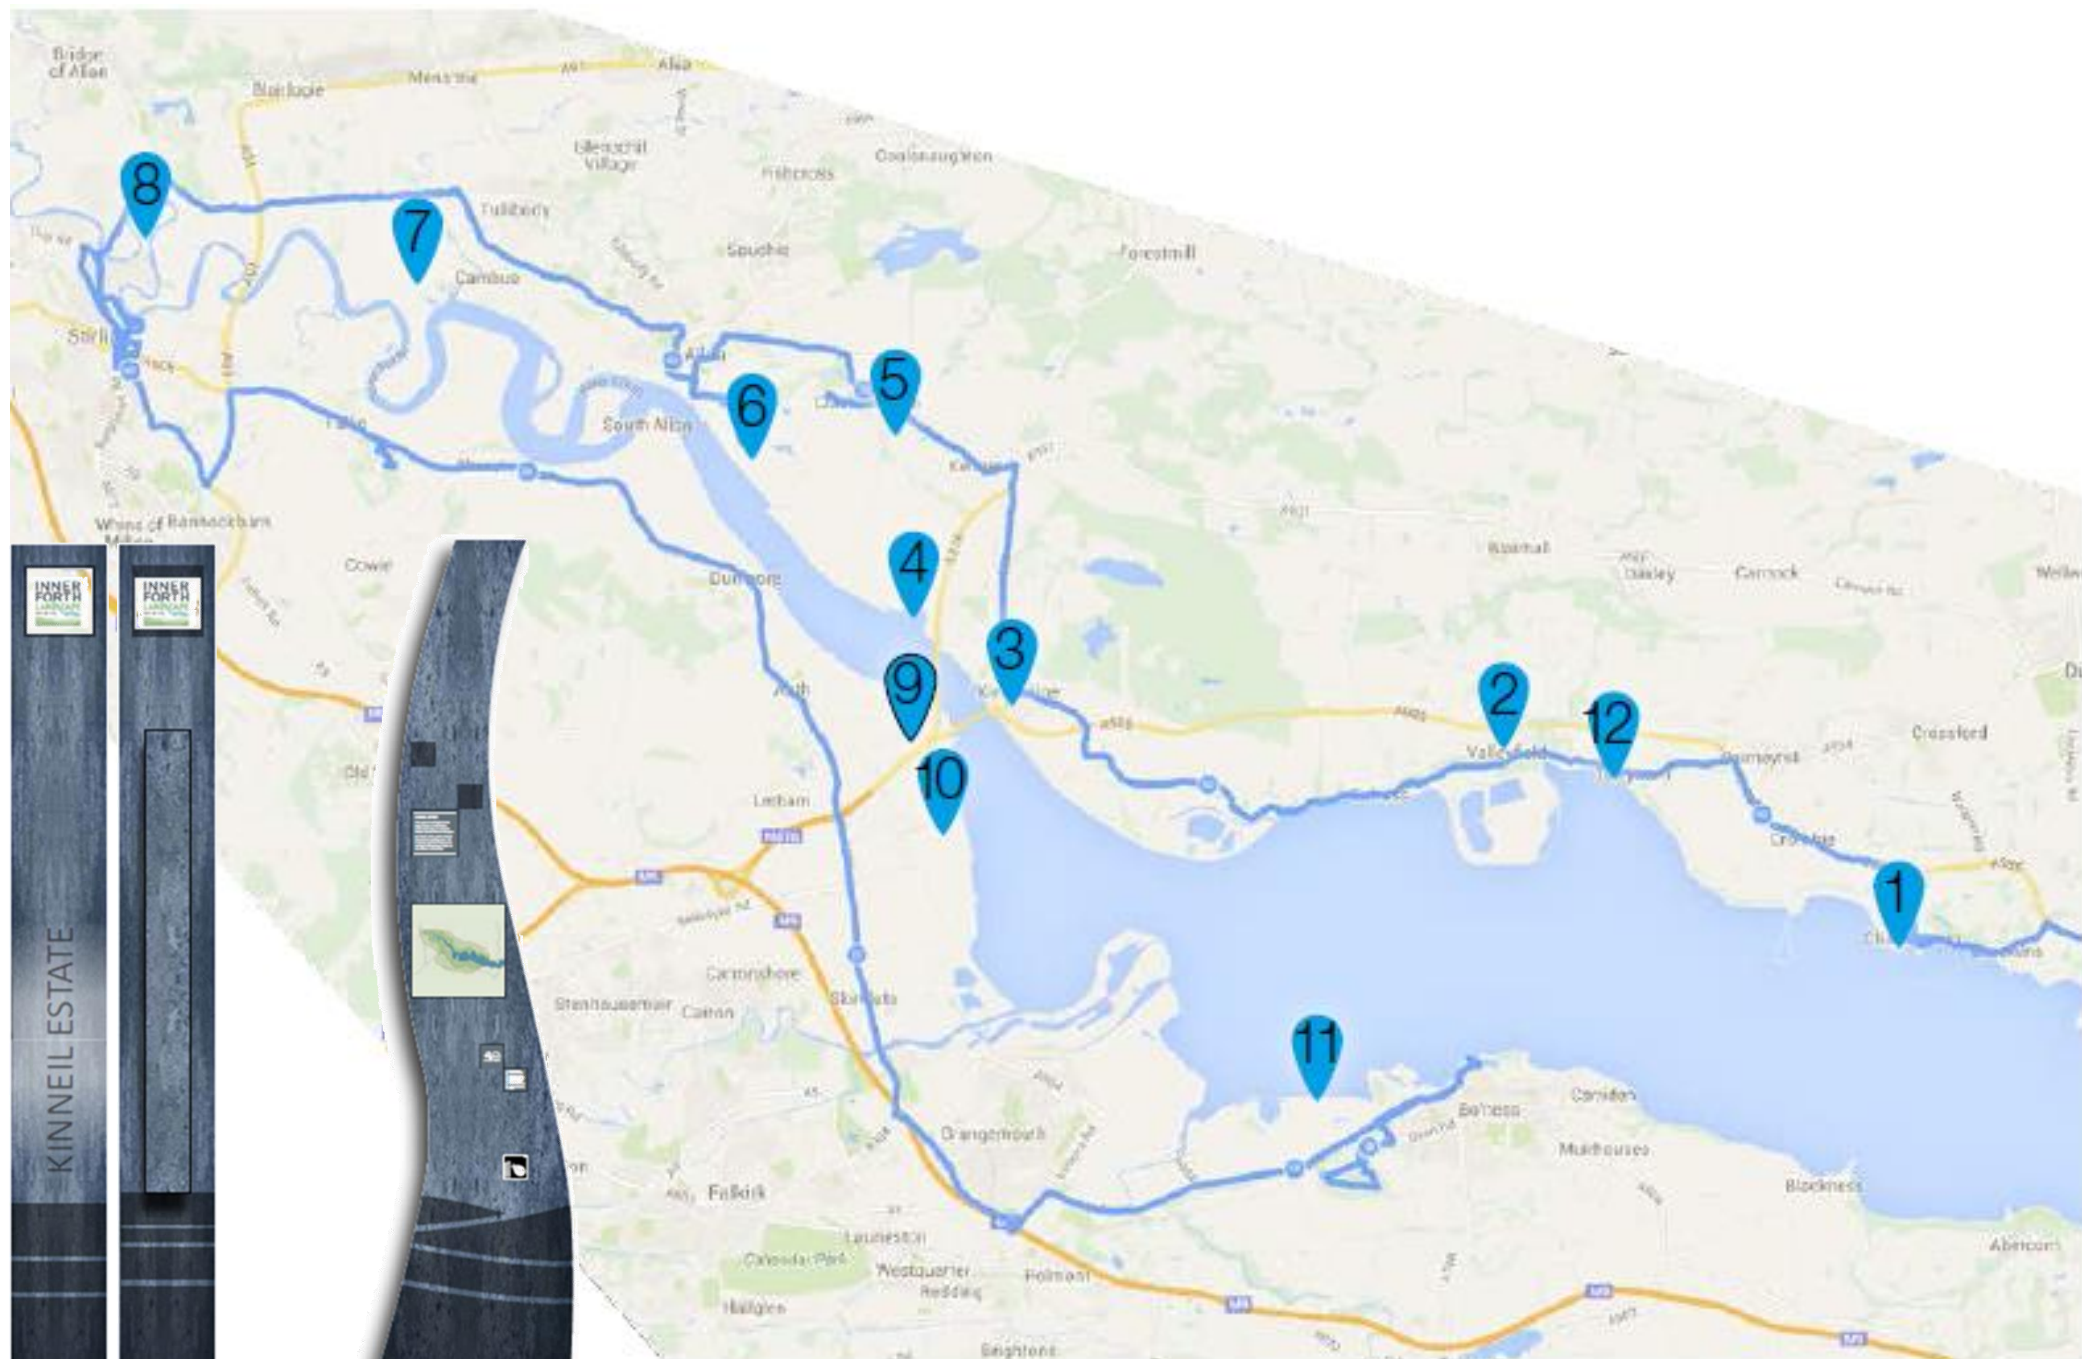

Download the app now!

There is so much to discover about the Inner Forth that we can only scratch the surface in a booklet like this. If you have a mobile device you can download our Inner Forth Explorer app, which will tell you more. The app is available for download from Google Play or Apple Appstore.

The app will help you find out more about these fascinating places - but you'll have to visit them to reveal the whole story!

DISCOVER

KINNEIL ESTATE

Outer Side Inner Side

